

Kilian

COLLECTION

September 2011

LAUNCH OF THE « DISCOVERY » COLLECTION

The 10 fragrances of the L'Œuvre Noire Collection gathered in one set

2007, date of birth of the brand KILIAN. 2011, end of the “déca aroma” from the L'Œuvre Noire collection with his last temptation “Sweet Redemption, the end”.

“During the last five years, we could have forgotten that each creation were playing a role in one single project. I wanted to gather this whole olfactory piece in one unique case in order to give everyone the opportunity to wear these perfumes as an olfactory wardrobe” explains Kilian Hennessy.

An ivory box harmonized with a black tassel, fetish symbol of the brand. Inside are the 10 travel size perfumes from the “L'Œuvre Noire” collection: Prelude to Love, Love, Beyond love, Love and Tears, A Taste of Heaven, Straight to Heaven, Back to Black, Liaisons Dangereuses, Cruel Intentions and Sweet Redemption.

Iris, Blossom Orange, Tuberose or Jasmin for “Love and its prohibitions”; Rum, Absinth or Tobacco for “The Artificial Paradises”; Plum, Oud or Bitter Orange Leaf for “The Temptations”. An olfactory initiation in the heart of the most prestigious perfumery raw materials through a unique combination of classic notes and unexpected accords.

Kilian's fans can now purchase the entire collection and, thus, discover each single perfume on one olfactory piece. For the ones, who will discover this passionate aesthete universe for the first time, they will have the chance to immerse themselves into the different themes. For those who love changing their perfumes, they will be able to switch, according to their mood. An exceptional gift to appreciate this unique piece.